

13 November 2008

Vitrum, Buenos Aires

TRAVEL

Mariana Rapoport

Local architects Paula Lavarello and Zas have created this art hotel with a colourful polished glass facade, in BA's Palermo neighbourhood. 'The colours and reflections are always changing,' says Lavarello, who worked on the facade with local artist Mónica Giron. Inside, the furniture includes pieces such as the 'BKF' chair, a local design par excellence.